HE KEPT THE JOB.

One of the bosses at Baldwin's Locomotive Works had to lay off an argumentative Irishman named Pat, so he saved discussion by putting the discharge in writing. The next day Pat was missing, but a week later the boss was passing through the shop and he saw him again at his lathe. Going up to the Irishman, he demanded fiercely:

"Didn't you get my letter?"
"Yis, sur, Oi did," said Pat.
"Did you read it?"

"Sure, sur, Oi read it inside and Oi read it outside," said Pat, "and on the inside yez said I was fired, and on the outside yez said, 'Return to Baldwin's Locomotive Works in five days.'"

FORLORN HOPE.

In reality, this (price cutting) sort of competition is easier to meet than legitimate competition. Why? Well, usually the price-cutter has found himself unable to get trade by legitimate means and adopts the price-cutting plan as a last resort in staving off the sheriff. Yes, sir, he can't get business at the regular prices; something is the matter with his store; either location, lack of publicity, dingy store front, or because he does not treat his trade well. Usually you will find the price-cutter is the fellow who acts as though he does not care whether his trade comes back or not. In most cases you will find that he has no regular customers; just buyers go into his store; his store lacks friends getting its business on a purely monetary basis.—The New Idea.

BULL MOOSER PRAISES G. O. P.

Henry L. Stimson, Taft's secretary of war, and the Roosevelt choice for governor of New York, in a long communication to the Philadelphia Public Ledger, takes a strong stand in favor of the permanence and integrity of the Republican party. He says:

The Republican of today need have not the slightest fear that the time-honored principles of his party are obsolete, or that the future divisions of the American people will take place on substantially different lines than heretofore. On the contrary, the underlying desire for a more efficient government which knit together the Federalists, the Whigs and the Republicans of the sixties, must necessarily grow stronger rather than weaker under the conditions of modern life.

There can be only two parties in the country. Today they are exactly what they were at the beginning of the government—strict and loose constructionists. These terms are only generalized into Democrat and Republican. There are incidents along the way that may cause a bending of these lines out of the straight course. As a rule they do not change and never will, for the distinction is a matter of human nature. People who rush in with little policies, born of the day's demands, can never create a new party. Never was there a greater provocation than in 1860, when the effort was made to change the Republican party to the Union party, but it failed and the Union was saved by Republican principles.

There was never a great thing done by a Democratic president but what was done in accordance with Republican principles. Note the purchase of Louisiana by Jefferson. And today, the love and devotion the Republicans are showing Wilson is perfectly consistent, for he is doing all his best things according to Republican ideals. Half of the Democratic shouting today is over the triumph of Republican principles.—Ashland Independent.

WHY DON'T YOU?

A farmer who was carrying an express package from a city mail order house, was accosted by a local merchant: "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." With characteristic frankness, the farmer asked: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know you had the goods I have here, nor did I ever see your name in the paper inviting one to come to your store."—The Pomotrope.

I next went to Taylorville, a beautiful little city of 7,000 population, the county seat of Christian County. Surrounded by one of the most fertile farming sections of the state, it is also an important mining center and should be a profitable location for retail merchants instead of a market for the large stores of Decatur, Springfield and St. Louis, as well as a dumping ground of the mail order houses. When I visited the freight stations with a merchant I found more goods were consigned to consumers than there were shipments consigned to merchants. I was not at all surprised to find that the merchants of Taylorville were not advertisers in their local papers.—A. O. Charles in the Drygoodsman.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

An agreeable hostess is one who is able to conceal her feelings.

In appraising a man, curly hair generally is listed as a liability.

It is only by attributing his downfall to liquor that a failure can work up much sympathy for himself.

It is not until after he discusses the matter with his wife that a man learns his hostess' dinner was not a success.

Flattery among friends is a case of either make or break.

Many a man has one wife too many who has only been married once.

Many a man's wasted energy is restricted entirely to praising himself.

The fellow who pats himself on the back is quite satisfied to stand pat.

Instead of taking time by the forelock some people are satisfied to hang onto his coat tails.

Tell a girl she has dreamy eyes and she will generally prove that she is wide awake.

A CLERICAL ERROR.

In a small country church, not long since, a little child was brought forward for baptism. The young minister, taking the little one in his arms, spoke as follows:

"Beloved hearers, no one can foretell the future of this little child. He may grow up to be a great astronomer, like Sir Isaac Newton, or a great labor leader, like John Burns; and it is possible he may become prime minister of England."

Turning to the mother he inquired: "What is the name of the child?"

"Mary Ann," was the reply.—Tit-Bits.

COL. BOONE ARRESTED UNDER "BLUE SKY" LAW.

Colonel Albert E. Boone, who for many years has been promoting street car and interurban lines, most of which never materialized, was arrested last week in Zanesville, following a secret indictment returned against him January 14 by the grand jury of Muskingum County. Boone's indictment and arrest was the result of investigations made by the "blue sky" bureau of the state banking department.

Colonel Boone has been operating around Zanesville for some time and he promoted two companies, known as the Pittsburgh Big Nine Ohio County Seats Trade Promoting Company and the Abraham Lincoln Mississippi-Ohio Valley States Trade Promoting Company. He was indicted on a charge made by state officials that he had accepted $2,000 from a widow who lives on a farm near Zanesville. She had been led to believe that he would build a traction line which would result in part of her farm becoming a town site. Officials say they discovered that he ignored the state bureau when he organized his companies and began selling stock. Ripley Bee.

"CANNED" BUZZARD.

(Cynthiana Democrat.)

The Democrat's correspondent at Oxford, Scott County, writes: "When Jesse Garnett was somewhat of a 'kid' living at Leesburg, he captured a large turkey buzzard in a steel trap. He converted an oyster can into a bell by tying a large nail in it for a clapper, wired it to the bird's neck and set him free. After a ten-year itinerary for the bird over various vicinities, perhaps, one day last week Jesse's uncle, Wren Wilson, recaptured his buzzard-ship near the place where it was first caught, with the bell still about its neck."

GIRLS IN KANSAS

Feel Encouraged—They Barred Men Who Chew, Smoke and Drink.

Dodge City, Kan.—The Good Habits club, composed of high school girls who have pledged themselves not to attend any party or any dance or otherwise associate with young men who drink, or smoke, has received hundreds of encouraging letters and telegrams since its organization last week. Many writers have asked information with a view, they say, of starting similar organizations in other cities.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Lincoln, Neb., in a letter urged the girls to stand firm until the young men stop smoking and drinking. "Don't associate with them until they pledge themselves to reform," the letter urged. A copy of the club's by-laws also was asked, the writer declaring she would organize a similar club in Lincoln.

A Stafford (Kan.) man, inclosing an envelope full of prohibition literature, wrote:

"I hope you will stick to it until you get a precedent in Dodge City that will start a reformation all over the country."

President Pettijohn of the Dodge City Commercial club today received the following message from a man in eastern Kansas, whose name he refused to make public:

"You should organize a club of young men to co-operate with your girls—a good husband club."

At Bartlett, Ia., a sympathizer writes: "I am a young man 22 years of age and use neither tobacco nor strong drink. I admit I swear, but no lady hears it from my lips. Above it all it makes my heart burn to see a young man who is drinking. But it is not whisky, girls, it's the men. They are weak. When they see the young women are determined to cut them out they will quit their folly."

The club got its first pledge today when a son was born to G. F. Clement, superintendent of schools. The members of the club secured from the father and mother a promise to raise the boy free from the use of tobacco and liquor.

PRETTY LITTLE DOLLY, NO MORE.

It's the common fate of all household pets. "Dolly," the prettiest and most loving and loved little "Toy poodle" one ever saw, and a valued household pet of the editor of The Public Ledger, was attacked by rabies and her condition became so bad last night that Dr. R. P. Moody was called in and he decided that Dolly must be chloroformed to prevent her possibly, from biting any one. This was done last night by Dr. Moody and Dolly went out on the wings of a painless death, sincerely mourned by her owner, Miss Theodosia G. Curran.

DEATH OF NEGRESS WHO DID NOT NEED FREEDOM.

(Frankfort State Journal.) Last rites were performed Tuesday afternoon over the body of Annie Pleasant, the last of a large family of faithful servants whose mother was brought from Virginia by Richard Blanton, the great-grandfather of Mrs. Kate Patton and Miss Virginia Morris. When the slaves were set free by President Lincoln, Annie refused to leave "Old Marster, Mr. Blanton, because he needed her." All the Blanton family thought highly of her, finding her truly, as she was always accustomed to call herself, a "dark skin white lady," courteous, truthful and highly honorable. She was 82 years old at the time of her death.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT KENTUCKY'S MILITIA.

Washington, January 28.—Kentucky's militia fails to draw any specific fire from Brig. Gen. Mills, chief of the division of militia affairs, who, in his annual report issued, scathes the militia of the nation for its failure to take advantage of what Gen. Mills considers its opportunities.

Two Kentucky companies—D, of the Second infantry, at Whitesburg, and L, of the Third infantry, at Murray—he grades as "excellent," while six companies are rated "very good."

There are 2,162 members of the Kentucky organized militia, and, according to the adjutant general of the State there are 342,162 males in the State available for militia service. The number of Kentucky males listed as available for such service by the census of 1910 is given as 457,493.

In 1912, the division of militia affairs invoiced the amount and value of equipment lost by the militia of the several States in the ten years from 1902. Kentucky lost $18,926 in equipment, of which the division chalked off $16,447, charging only the small remainder against the next allotment of $26,409 which is to be made to the State. This leaves the State $23,930.

Gen. Mills announces that the Federal appropriation for the Kentucky militia for 1913-1914 is: For ammunition, $9,795; for supplies, $16,614; a total of $26,409.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 7305 Madison Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 196 Stock St., Hanover, Pa.

RED CROSS SEALS

Good Work of High School Pupils, Who Sold $55.55 Worth During the Holidays.

During the holidays several of the High School students sold Red Cross stamps for the benefit of the local Health League. There was a friendly rivalry among the four classes in the High School, as to which class might sell the greatest number of stamps. While the Freshman class sold 2,402 stamps, being more than that of any other class, yet the average per pupil was 29.29. The Junior class making the highest average, sold 1,019, making an average of 31.84. The Senior's were second with an average of 31.09, the Sophomores 27.88. While the Sophomores made the lowest average per pupil, yet the greatest number sold by any one pupil was by a Sophomore, Miss Harriett Rains, who sold 315 stamps. The one selling the greatest number in the Freshman class was Miss Lucille Parker, who sold 250 stamps. Miss Martha Green Sharp, 200, and in the Senior class Anna Calvert, 151. The total amount turned over to the Treasurer of the Health League was $55.55.

These young people deserve a great deal of credit for the enthusiasm they have manifested in this work. The Health League is carrying on some splendid work here, and we know that they appreciate very much any work of this nature.

ALMOST THE TRUTH.

Gen. John M. Wilson, formerly superintendent at West Point, and beloved equally by soldier and civilian, while having a warm spot in his heart for old Virginia, finds keen delight in twitting her sons upon their crowning weakness, says the Washington Times. Halting Senator Swanson the other day, with a merry twinkle in his merry eye, he spoke thus:

"Senator, I dreamed last night that I had gone to heaven, and while St. Peter, or maybe it was Gabriel, was taking me around, showing me the pearly battlements and the golden streets of the new Jerusalem, I saw several stout angels busily engaged in lashing a new arrival to a lamp post. This party made vigorous protest, biting, kicking and scratching in a manner that seemed to tally foreign to the sublime peace of the heavenly city."

"Who is that gentleman, and why is he acting so unruly?" I asked my guide.

"Oh, that's a fellow who came up from Richmond last night," responded Gabriel, with a glance of irritation at the newcomer. "He's kicking because they won't let him go back to Virginia."

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad. It is the Sign of the Times.

We Are Now Ready to Give You Our Service!

To us service means this: To sell only the best merchandise to be had; to give what you want when you want it; to gladly refund your money if we fail to satisfy you. Try a Hart, Schaffner & Marx Suit and Overcoat for the price you usually pay for the inferior kind. Our stock of Shoes, Hats, Shirts and all the little accessories are selected with great care. Come in and test us out; it's worth while.
